Sir:

Responsive to an Election/Restriction Requirement dated March 9, 2004, whereon a one (1)

month time period for response is set to expire on April 9, 2004, applicant in the above-entitled responds as follows:

Election of Species:

Per the requirement of the subject Office Action, citing 35 U.S.C. 121, applicant here selects Subspecies 2A, as represented by figure 3B that is covered by the generic claims of Claims 1 - 3, particularly Claim 1, and therefore should properly not be considered a subspecies. Accordingly, as applicant believes that the lure of figure 3B is properly included with the generic claims, applicant submits and hereby selects, in addition to that of figure 3B, the subspecies 1B of figure 2 that is claimed in Claims 8 and 9. This election is made with traverse and applicant respectfully submits that, with the allowance of Claims 1 - 3 that the non-elected subspecies claims that depend upon Claim 1 will properly be allowable, and accordingly, with the allowance of Claim 1 and the claims dependent thereon, that the Subspecies requirement be removed and that the elected and non-elected claims will be allowed.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "M. Reid Russell". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "M." and last name "Russell" clearly distinguishable.
